

A snapshot of Pip's week in Willow Class at Overley Hall

Date Week commencing Monday 22nd January

Monday

Pip joined Willow class this week. After being introduced to the group he joined in with registration looking at the day, date and weather and days activities.

Pip was happy to help out with the cooking we think this may have been because we were making his favourite Fishcakes

Tuesday

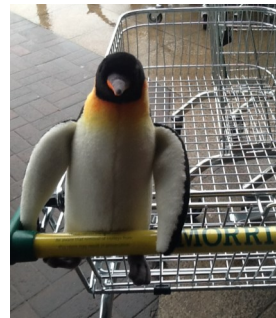

Pip was hoping he didn't land on the snake during our Maths game

Experiments during science
This is weigh to heavy around my neck

Wednesday

Going to shop till I drop

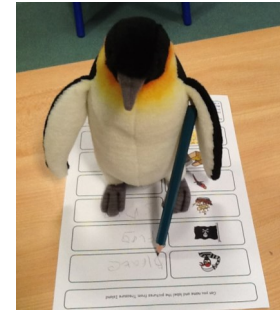

Wow this shop is heaven

Lovely walk around the lake

Thursday

Topic time Treasure Island, Pip thought if he did his English writing work he would get a treat

Pip is rewarded with the treasure map, go on Pip go and see the Pirates off and find your rewards

Friday

Pips found a new class friend during the attention session her name was Poppy . Pip watched her doing backflips and was amazed.

After looking at Ancient Egypt
Pip decided he much preferred a cooler climate
Pip really enjoyed his week in Willow and was involved in lots of activities.
